People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON (Please be seated.) THE REVEREND ROBERT A. NAGY, OBLATE OSB

THE NICENE CREED (Please stand as you are able.)

Celebrant: We believe in one God,

Celebrant and People:

the Father, the Almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Intercessor

The good news of incarnation shows dramatically God's love for a fallen world. Let us pray to the God of wonder, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church, those who bear the name Christian here and throughout the world, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For God's blessing of peace upon all nations and upon all who dwell therein, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who rejoice during this holiday season: friends, relatives, and neighbors, generous givers and gracious receivers, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who mourn during this holiday season, the grief-stricken and the despondent, the lonely and the forgotten let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all whom winter treats harshly, those without home or shelter, those without heating or clothing, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who have gone before us, family, friends, and neighbors, mighty saints and repentant sinners, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: As shepherds were astonished by your marvels, O God, so too do we stand in awe of your goodness. Be merciful to us today in our need that we may learn to be your compassion in the world. We ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION (Please stand or kneel, as you prefer.)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant: God of all mercy,

Celebrant and People:

we confess that we have sinned against you,

opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,

in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,

the evil we have done,

and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ,

that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE (Please stand as you are able.)

Celebrant: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING: EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER 1 (EOW)

(Please remain standing as you are able.)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

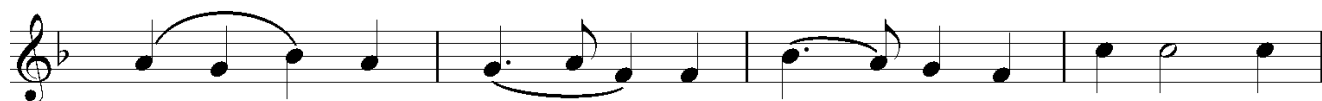

Celebrant and People:

SANCTUS (HOLY, HOLY, HOLY)

RICHARD PROULX

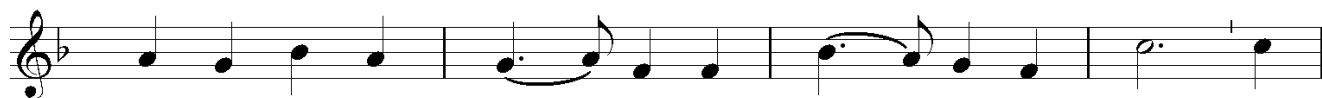

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

(Please remain standing or kneel, as you prefer.)

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

B-73

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with the Ever-blessèd Virgin Mary, Blessèd Thomas of Canterbury, and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

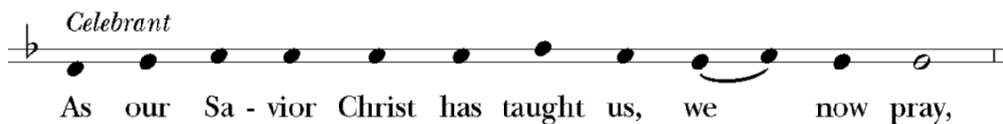

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

GREAT AMEN

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MISSION: The Annual Meeting of the Mission will take place on Sunday, January 29. The schedule will be similar to previous years; the luncheon and meeting will follow the regular Sunday morning schedule of all three worship services. Please begin praying about the possibility that God is calling you to serve on the Bishop's Committee or as a Delegate to the 2013 Diocesan Convention.

- The Nine Bishop's Committee Members are responsible for working with the Vicar to provide the leadership for the Church. Each Bishop's Committee Member is responsible for coordinating/supporting a specific area of ministry. This includes helping to set goals, identifying programs and projects, being accountable to budgets, recruiting participants, and much, much more. Three Bishop's Committee Members—each full-term (three years)—will be added during the Annual Meeting of the Mission to continue a complement of nine total members.
- The 'Delegates to Diocesan Convention' are expected to be familiar with most of the ministries of the church. Also, there are pre-convention meetings that are important to attend, as well. We will be electing three Delegates and two to three Alternate Delegates.

Interested? Please contact Peter Mandery, Vince Walton or Father Robert.

ANNUAL MINISTRY REPORTS

As the Annual Meeting of the Mission approaches, those who help coordinate our various ministries are asked to turn-in their annual reports no later than Friday, January 20. As usual, these reports will become part of the Annual Meeting of the Mission Report. If at all possible, individual ministry reports are to be submitted in digital format sent to the church office at the following email address: admin@stthomastemecula.org.

ANGLICAN STUDIES

This program consists of one-hour discussions with Father Robert about Anglicanism on the first Tuesday of the month—October through June—beginning at 7:00 pm. Topics include the Book of Common Prayer, the Hymnal, worship style, and what it means to be an Anglican. This is preparation for adult baptism/confirmation. Also, it makes a great refresher program. Anglican Studies is a great opportunity for some great discussions. We meet this Tuesday! Please come by.

BENEDICTINE WAY

Benedictine Way is the name for a group that gathers with the Vicar in the Saint Benedict Conference Room to explore the 1,500+ year-old Rule of Benedict and Benedictine spirituality. Currently, they are using Norveen Vest's book PREFERRING CHRIST. (As many of you know, Father Robert is an Oblate of the Servants of Christ Priory, a Benedictine monastic community in Phoenix.) This group also incorporates worship, prayer, and the use of Lectio Devina—Sacred Reading. The session begins with the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Wednesdays at 7:00 pm. The program concludes by 9:00 pm. (If you're not able to make the Eucharist, the conversations begin about 7:45 pm.) The content of each session varies somewhat according to our sense of God's call to us. We meet this Wednesday! All are welcome to attend these gatherings as your schedules permit.

Mama Dog and 2 puppies available to good homes

The mom and pups were recently discovered as strays on a construction site. Eric began feeding the mom and she gradually befriended him. He had to bring them home to shelter when the rains and cold temps began. They've been in the 3rd garage and are doing very well, and they need to belong to good and loving homes.

- ✓ 1 boy puppy ("Tubo"),
- ✓ 1 girl puppy ("Miss Whiney") - appx 7 weeks old as of Jan 1st!
- ✓ "Mama Dog" is perhaps a year old, a mix. Perhaps some German Shepherd. About 20 pounds, 22" height. She is sweet, sweet, sweet! Very loving, walks on leash, responds to "come", "garage trained" She adapted very well and quickly to new people, surroundings, routines and environment.

BIBLE STUDY WITH FATHER ROBERT

Every Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Father Robert meets with folks at the Sterling at Vintage Hills to study Holy Scripture. They use the material that is distributed every Sunday morning—Synthesis CE. During their time together, they explore both the meaning of these passages of scripture to the people of biblical times and the meaning to us today. These sessions are not limited to those who live at Sterling; all are welcome to join. Please consider doing exactly that.

Report Sexual Misconduct: As part of our ongoing commitment to creating a safe haven for everyone, please remember that our diocese values the tenet of our baptismal covenant to "respect the dignity of every human being." Part of the way we live into that is to train people in the prevention of sexual misconduct and to encourage all to report any misconduct. All reported incidences are taken seriously and investigated thoroughly and confidentially. If you believe you have experienced sexual misconduct of any kind, please contact the Rev. Canon Suzann V. Holding immediately: sholding@edsd.org or 619-481-5452.
